Still from Moose Jaw (There's a Future in our Past) by Richard Hancox

"Canadian sensibility has been profoundly disturbed, not so much by our famous problem of identity, important as that is, as by a series of paradoxes in what confronts that identity. It is less perplexed by the question 'Who am I?' than by some such riddle as 'Where is here?'"

Northrop Frye, The Bush Garden, 1965
